Writing

E. An object that people use every day

People use many different things in our daily life. For example, water bottles, planners and other goods. My favourite is phone. I use it everyday and phone helps me to do my daily routine.

It has some advantages. Firstly, phone allows people to communicate with others. You may call or text them any time. Moreover, it has many useful apps, that can be used by anyone. For instance an app calls "Habit tracker". This program helps people to do daily tasks, that a lot of people forget, such as drinking water, doing housework and even homework.

On the other hand, it has some negatives. People use phone every day, consequently they start to procrastinate and have a bad mental health. Also people become more lazy, as phones are always in their hands, as a result, they watch reels instead of doing some tasks at home, like housework, etc.

Despite disadvantages, phone is helpful object that I use every day. If you want to enhance your daily habits, phone is a worthwhile thing. I really recommend it to you.
